Military Committee Directive I
Suspension of Legislation

1. The suspension of laws and legislation, judicial and military with immediate effect. This directive is necessary to ensure the reformation is successfully completed. This decision has been made with the consent of those who signed the Declaration of Reformation.
2. The Military Committee vows to reinstate all legislation once the reformation has been completed. This document will become null and void three hundred and sixty five days from ratification, or on the ratification of the new constitution, whichever is sooner.
3. All power will be held within the Military Committee and the Imperial Grand Duke will remain as a ceremonial Head of State.

Signed,

His Grace, General Lord Mike Lewis, Marquis of New Charter
Prime Minister of Lundenwic and Leader of the Military Committee
